

Vacancy

Head teacher (m/f/d) for Deutsch Skandinavische Gemeinschaftsschule (German Scandinavian Interdenominational School)

For our Deutsch Skandinavische Gemeinschaftsschule (DSG) we are looking for an experienced head teacher (m/f/d) with a Scandinavian profile to start on 1 August 2021, who, together with our commercial management, will drive forward the pedagogical and organisational development of our successfully established school.

Our profile

- The DSG is an officially recognised school sponsored by the Montessori Foundation Berlin. Currently, we accompany 216 children and adolescents from school entry to intermediate school certificate.
- The DSG follows a reform pedagogical and immersive concept, is oriented towards Montessori educational theory, the work on relationships according to Jesper Juul and promotes multilingual and intercultural learning (Scandinavia-Germany).
- The DSG is bilingual (German-Danish, German-Norwegian, German-Swedish). In addition, all children learn English from the first grade, and Spanish from the 7th grade.
- The DSG is moving forward with digitalisation and is promoting the integration of digital media in the classes. Since 2019, the DSG has a digital maker space.
- The DSG enjoys high demand and is still growing in the primary and secondary school. In the coming years, the DSG will realise a building project to create more space and possibilities for the implementation of pedagogy and to continue to ensure high quality.

Your responsibilities

- pedagogical management of the school in close coordination with the commercial management (including human resources, quality, information and resource management)
- management of the pedagogical staff (35 employees) and organization of the pedagogical work
- implementation and further development of the pedagogical concept
- promoting digitization / the integration of digital media in the classes
- professional advice for the pedagogical staff and parents of the DSG
- participation in the committees of the DSG (e.g. school conference, parents' representation)
- cooperation with the Senate Administration within the framework of the School Law for the State of Berlin (including teaching permits, keeping official appointments)

- representation of DSG in our international network
- contact for sponsors from the German and Scandinavian regions
- accountability to the school board
- exchange and cooperation with other institutions sponsored by the Montessori Foundation Berlin

Your ideal profile

- completed 2nd state examination for the teaching at primary and/or secondary school level I or a teaching qualification recognised as equivalent in the State of Berlin (or equivalent Scandinavian education)
- several years of professional experience as a head teacher at a progressive educational German and/or Scandinavian school
- education / experience with interculturalism or at an international school
- profound knowledge in progressive education and/or Montessori educational theory
- experience in inter-year and differentiated teaching as well as with multilingual school concepts
- knowledge of the German and Scandinavian school system
- good language skills in German, English and one Scandinavian language
- high level social skills
- high level of personal responsibility and decision-making ability
